Washington, DC 20003

RE: Urgent Meeting Request to Discuss Plans to Dismantle the Department of Education

Dear Acting Secretary Carter,

As Members of Congress, we are requesting an urgent meeting this week with you regarding the Trump Administration's reported effort to dismantle the Department of Education (the Department).

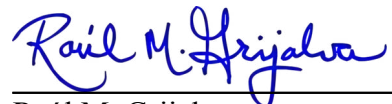

We are deeply concerned by numerous credible public reports that the Trump Administration has plans to illegally dismantle or drastically reduce the Department through Executive Order. As Members vested with oversight power, we demand a discussion of what such a reduction of the Department would entail, including which programs would be cut, which would be moved into the jurisdiction of other agencies, and the projected impact of those changes on Americans across the country.

We request a response within 24 hours to this urgent inquiry. Please reach my office through my staffer Mieko Kuramoto (mieko.kuramoto@mail.house.gov).

Sincerely,

Mark Takano
